Foreign Intelligence.

GLEANINGS, FROM LATE LONDON PAPERS.

THE DUKE OF WIRTEMBERG.

We have already mentioned the arreſt of the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg by the Duke his father. As ſoon as he was arreſted the Duke aſſembled his Miniſters, and the young Prince underwent an examination which laſted till midnight: he was then ſent to an apartment in the caſtle, in the cuſtody of a Lieutenant and Adjutant, while two ſentinals were poſted at the door. The Camberlain De Pfuhl was alſo taken up and ſent to priſon. The following letter from Stutgard explains the motivas of the arreſt of the young Prince:—

Stutgard, Dec. 10.

The King of Pruſſia had offered to the Duke of Wirtemberg to take his ſon into his ſervice, and to give him beſides a penſion of 4000 German crowns. The Emperor not having been informed of this propoſal, and wiſhing to attach the Duke of Wirtemberg to him, offered higher terms than the King of Pruſſia. The Duke, unwilling to diſpleaſe either of the two Sovereigns, replied, that his ſon was two young (he is 17) and that his education was not completed. He therefore demanded a year, at leaſt, before he ſent him abroad. The young Prince informed of this negociation by one of the perſons in his ſervice, thinking himſelf too harſhly treated by his father, and giving the preference to the ſervice of Pruſſia, had formed a plan, it is ſaid to eſcape with his confident and to go to Berlin. The correſpondence, however, was intercepted, which this confident kept up with his brother, who is in that capital. This is the real ſtate of the caſe The Prince is ſtill under arreſt, and is in a few days to be ſent to Tabingen, ſeven leagues from Stutgard, where he is to finiſh, it is ſaid, his courſe of ſtudies. Tabingen is one of the moſt celebrated Univerſities in Germany.

The Preſident of the Court Martial, held on Capt. Thompſon after the Sentence was read, addreſſed him nearly as follows:

"Captain THOMPSON, I feel the moſt lively pleaſure in returning you the ſword with which you have ſo bravely maintained the Honour of your King and Country; the more ſo, as I am convinced, that, when you are again called upon to draw it in their defence, that you will add freſh laurels to the wreath which you have already ſo nobly won."

The thanks of the Court were alſo given to Sir Edward Berry, who was preſent on this occaſion, for the gallant and active zeal he manifeſted, by giving his aſſiſtance on board the Leander, in the combat with the Genereux; and upon the return of Captain Thompſon to the ſhore from the Court Martial, he was ſaluted with three cheers by all the ſhips in the harbour at Sheerneſs.

Lord DUNCAN ſtill retains the command of the North Sea fleet, and as his health is improving, it is hoped he will be able to reſume his active ſervices in the ſpring.

The occult ſciences are ſtrangely neglected by the great men who tread the puzzled maze of politics, in the pompous pride of ſuperior intellect. The fate of Naples was as little foreſeen as the evacuation of St. Domingo, except by ſome Jacobin Journals, which, like Caſſandra, have the merit of telling truth, without inforcing conviction.

PORTLAND, June 5.

What the public mind has long been led to anticipate from the depraved conduct of France, is about unfolding itſelf—and tyranny and domination are on the retreat.

The news from Europe, in the preceding columns, is highly ſatisfactory to all good men and true patriots—

It appears, that the begining of the new campaign, tho' bloody, has been glorioufly fortunate to the Auſtrians, both in Italy and Germany. It is with great pleaſure we ſee that the ſame places which in '96 and '97, ſo often witneſſed the defeat of the Auſtrians, eare now the theatre of their repeated victories The triumphs of the Auſtrians have compelled the French to evacuate the Tyrol, and withdraw into the Griſon country. We are in poſſſion of lengthy, and of the official accounts thoſe events.

The Combined Powers appear in great ſpirits and encreaſing activity—and from the additions which they are jointly making to their trains of attack, and from the juſtice of their cauſe, ultimate ſucceſs appears likely to crown their exertions. The firſt column of the Ruſſians arrived on the 31ſt March at Baſſano, three ſhort days march from Verona; kill or be killed, is the maxim of the Muſcovites, a principle well calculated to damp the ardor of their French opponent. Corfu is become the rendezvous of the Turks and Ruſſians, of the latter of whom 100,000 troops were expected in Italy. The Emperor Paul is determined on a new levy of 100,000 men.

The Five-headed monſter trembles at its approaching diſſolution. On the 17th April, the Directory ſent a meſſage to the Council regarding the neceſſity of putting into full execution the law for raiſing the 200,000 conſcription men. The meſſage ſtates that it can no longer be delayed, without putting the Republic in danger, as the gigantic efforts of the coalition require the immediate employment of every means left. Jourdan and Barnadotte, being taken ſick (probably from a conviction that the Auſtrian ſheers were cloſing on their laurels) have left their armies and gone to Paris. A galloping conſumption, alſo, is pervading the whole French ſyſtem. We have long predicted that the preſent order of things in France would not be permanent. The abuſe which the ruling party has made of its power, not only by tyranizing over the French people, but by deſtroying the independence and robbing the wheatlh of the neighbouring States, has never been equaled. All that ſeems wanting at the preſent moment is, an internal ſhock to paralyſe the power of the Directory. Such a favorable moment ſeems now approachiug, by the ſucceſſes which have attended the Auſtrian arms, and the almoſt entire annihilation of their marine by the Britiſh. The moment when it arrives will not be ſuffered to paſs without a new revolution in France; for it is impoſſible but the preſent rubbiſh, permitted to exiſt for a time to puniſh mankind, muſt be ſwept away to make room for a better order of things!

The Helvetic Republic is proceeding in the mild ſteps of its virtuous matron; and to enforce continuance of their aſſumed authority, the government decreed at Lucerne, on the 29th March, That every Helvetic citizen who, at this requeſt made by the government ſhall refuſe to march with the choſen body, ſhall be puniſhed with death: and that every citizen, or foreigner living under the laws of the republic, who either by words or actions ſhall oppoſe the meaſures taken by the government for the defence of the conntry, or ſhall attempt to draw others from their obedience to the laws, and their duty in their country's defence, or who ſhall propoſe to ſubmit to a foreign power, ſhall be peniſhed with death!

Holland, it is ſaid, has undergone a new revolution, in favor of the Stadtholder: effected by the removal of the French guard to the Rhine.—The whole canton of Berne refuſed to march with the French againſt the Auſtrians; in conſeqnence every peaſant who refuſes is to be ſhot. The Neapolitans retaliate moſt revengefully on the French. In all the Griſons, Swiss and other conquered countries, nothing but opportunity is wanting to make the people riſe en maſſe againſt their French oppreſſors.

Of Egypt, the moſt recent information appaers via Conſtantinople. It ſtates, that Gezura Pacha, on being informed that the French General Kleber had taken Gaza, in Syria, poſted his army in a ſituation by which he cut off the communication between Gaza and Cairo: another article mentions, that a Liguarian capt. at Spezzia, about the 27th of March in 20 days from Alexandria, reports that Buonaparte was well at Gaza; that he was maſter of all the keys of Syria, and that all was quiet in Egypt.

Ireland was, politically, in a tranquilized ſtate: the majority of reſpectable characters are for the propoſed union with G. Britain and are ſigning petitions to that effect. The Britiſh H. of Commons on the 22d April concurred with the Lords in this meaſure.

CHARLESTON, June 3.

Extract of a letter from Hanover, dated May 30th, 1799.

"Our crop has ſuſtained a conſiderable injury from a fall of hail, the greateſt I believe, ever remembered in South Carolina; the heavieſt fall of it was between here and Ophir.

"Our cotton was much beaten down and injured; the corn and potatoes ſuffered leſs; the rice none at all. I am in great hopes the cotton will do well yet, though I have ſupplied the vacant places with corn.

"On Tueſday laſt after dinner, we perceived a ſmall cloud riſing to the ſouth, and another to the north; the clouds met about 13 minutes before 4 o'clock, when a ſtrong ſouth wind began to blow, with rain and hail, which continued with violence until 15 minutes after 4, a duration of 28 minutes, at the expiration of which, the whole ſurface of the earth was covered from two to three inches deep, and in many places where it had been floated, it was from 6 to 8 inches deep; and in one of the walks of the garden, we meaſured 9 inches of ſolid ice.

"It was ſo dark during the ſtorm, that ſeveral times we could not ſee thirty rods, and clouds of ſmoke appeared floating above the ſurface of the earth, ſo that we could not ſee one hundred yards from the door. The noiſe from the fall of hail on the houſe was ſo great, that it was difficult to hear each other ſpeak acroſs the hall. The hail ſtones were not as large as might be expected though large enough to break ſome of our window glaſſes. The hail remained in ſome places until laſt evening."

The Committee reported the following letter, which was adopted by the meeting—

SIR,

AT a meeting held at the Court Houſe in Weſt Cheſter on the 18th of June 1799, by a great number of reſpectable citizens of Cheſter County, Committees have been appointed for the different townſhips of this county, to ſupport JAMES ROSS, Eſq. of Pittſburgh for Governor of the ſtate of Pennſylvania at the enſuing election.

The gentlemen compoſing the committees in each townſhip have been carefully choſen as perſons of known attachment to our preſent conſtitution and laws, and who will be likely to exert themſelves and uſe every fair and honorable means to inſure the election of Mr. Roſs.

The object of each committee is, that the perſons compoſing the committee ſhould meet together with ſuch other gentlemen of their townſhip as they may think proper, and to uſe their beſt endeavors to induce every perſon in their townſhip who feels himſelf intereſted in favor of Mr. Roſs, to attend at the election. And the committee of your townſhip is particularly requſted to correſpond with Col. Gibbons (the correſponding member of the committee of Cheſter county) for the purpoſe of giving and receiving any information that may be neceſſary relative to the enſuing election.

The incredible exertions which the party oppoſed to the meaſures of the federal gouernment are making, renders it neceſſary to enter into ſome ſyſtem of this kind. Mr. Roſs is well known, his ſimplicity of manners, his eaſe of acceſs, and his abilities ſo eminently diſplayed in the formation of our ſtate conſtitution and in the ſenate of the United States have made his character admired, not only in the ſtate wherein he lives, but in the different ſtates of the union; and will certainly, if elected, fill the office of chief magiſtracy of the ſtate of Pennſylvania with honor and dignity.

Herewith is tranſmitted to you the names of the perſons appointed in each townſhip, and alſo a copy of a circular letter from the committee in the city of Philadelphia.

Signed by order of the meeting.

ISAAC WAYNE, Secretary.

From a London paper.—April 1.

On Saturday letters were received in town from New-York, dated the 1ſt ult. By theſe we learn, that Mr. ADAMS, the worthy Preſident of the United States of America, with an anxious wiſh to keep his country at peace with the whole world, had proceeded to the nomination of three gentlemen to treat with French Republick, whenever a fit opportunity ſhould offer, and a ſincear diſpoſition be ſhewn by France to renew the negociation. The gentlemen propoſed were, Mr. Elſworth, of Boſton; Mr. Henry, of Maryland; and Mr. Vans Murry, the American reſident with the Batavian Republic.

Mr. ADAMS's propoſition, on being ſubmitted to a committee of the Senate, was rejected. The capture of the French frigate by the Conſtellation was not known in America at the date of the above letters; but though ſome of our Jacobin papers ever willing to apologize for the aggreſſions of France, are diſpoſed to blame the American Commodore for having wantonly began a war, yet we believe his conduct will ſtand in need of no vindication, when it is known that when the Inſurgent was captured, 4 American Captains were on board her, who had been taken by the French Commander.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

Capt. Foster, 34 days from Lisbon, heard it reported before he sailed, that the French Brest fleet had got to sea. After sailing, May 27, lat. 37, long. 33, spoke the sch. Agnes, Bacon, bound to Philadelphia,—which had been boarded from a British Cutter, and the Captain informed that the French fleet was not only at sea, but had entered the Srreights, and consisted of 27 vessels.

Capt. Foster brought with him a sketch of intelligence prepared by Mr. Bulkley.—It follows:

"It is reported, and credited here (Lisbon) that a French or Spanish fleet is at sea. Messengers from Lagos say, French—those from Oporto say Spanish. The Success frigate has been chased by them, and is gone to Gibralter to give the information to Earl St. Vincents.

"The French have been worsted in Italy, and obliged to retire towards Milan. Some letters assert their head quarters to be at Lodi, (which is 20 miles S. E. of the city of Milan.) Most reports agree that the Austrians have taken Ferrara, (capital of the Duchy of that name, in the late Territory of the Pope.) The first Corps of Russian Troops are said to have arrived before Mantua. The French troops have evacuated Naples for fear of being cut off. The affairs of the French were never so bad in Italy, as at the present moment; and it is not likely there will be a Frenchman in Italy in three months time from the present day.

We obtain the most circumstantiaal intelligence of the French fleet being at sea, from a Halifax paper of June 8, in which it is given on indisputable authority, with an addition, that furnishes reasonable grounds to expect the British fleet has fallen in with them. The British Admirals, as was anticipated, received early information of the French fleet being at sea—numerous cutters soon conveyed the agreeble intelligence; and the best measures for meeting them have been adopted.

Halifax, June 8.

Extract of a letter from Lieutenant Courtney, of His Majesty's Ship Topaze, to a Gentleman in this Town.

"It is with great pleasure I can safely say you will be able to celebrate a great victory over the French in a short time. On the 1st of May the Black Joke, Lugger, was dispatched by Lord Bridport to Ireland, and on her way, in long. 8 17. W. Cape Clear bearing N. half W. distant 47 leagues, very fortunately fell in with us and gave us the pleasing intelligence of his Lordship being then in chase of the Republicans to the number of 15 sail of the line and 10 frigates. On the 29th of April, he fell in with them, and unfortunately a fog came on; however at the time the Lugger left him he was not more than twelve leagues from them, bearing N. N. E. of him supposed to be then steering in that quarter; and I assure you a very narrow escape we had; for when the Lugger first discovered us she made no doubt our convoy had then been captured, as the enemy's fleet, could not be more than six leagues to windward of us: We were then steering W. N. W. and Capt. Church judged Lord Bridport to be S. W. of us, thought it necessary to steer W. to join him: However we missed him, but fortunately saved (I verily believe) the convoy by it. If the Lugger had not been seen, we must inevitably have run directly into their mouths. We suppose they were destined for Ireland; but meeting two days after with Capt. Durham, in the Anson, with the Naiad, who were then reconnoitering, from some intelligence Capt. Durham had received, he was of opinion they were endeavouring to form a junction with the Spanish and Toulon fleet; but I think there is very little doubt of their going to Ireland. I assure you our expectations are wonderfully raised, conceiving to a certainty, Lord Bridport must fall in with them, and as our fleet, is the most powerful for the number that has sailed this war, will give a very satisfactory account of them. The following are the names of the ships of the Line, which I give you as accurate as possible.

RECRUITING.

Capt. LANGDON, of the Army of the United States, has nearly raised his Company, among the spirited youth of Troy (N. Y.) and its vicinity.—Col. HUNNEWELL'S Regiment, it is said, will be collected in the District of Maine; and with ease. The Recruiting Business in and near Boston, exhibits a promising appearance. The ease and respectability of a soldier's life, has to the informed laboring poor, attractions, which we may reasonably suppose are irresistable.

NEW-YORK June 21.

The schooner Bird, captain Bain, arrived yesterday in 14 days from St Bartholomews, left there the following vessels: schr. Caroline, of Boston, capt. Taylor, and Brig Fair American, of New York, captured by the French and re captured by the English; also schr. Harriet, of Boston; all prizes to the French. Sloop Farmer, of New Yarmouth; schr. President, of Washington; ship Active, of Nantucket, from the South Seas, loaded with oils; the schr. Alliance, loaded with lumber.

On the 20th of May a smart action commenced betwixt an English schooner of 10 guns, and a French schooner of 12 In two hours the latter got under the protection of the fort of St. Bartholomew's and after several shot from the fort, the English schr. gave up the chase, and the French schr. came to anchor at St. Bartholomew's with three feet water in her hold, several of her crew wounded, and three killed.

May 28, an English schooner called the Sturdy Beggar, mounting 10 guns, was captured at anchor by a French schr. of 12 guns without a shot being fired on either side.

"I am sorry to add (says Capt. Bain) that St. Bartholomews is a rendezvous for French pirates. It often happens that a boat with a few muskets will go out under the guns of the fort, and take our vessels that are bound to St. Bartholomews, bring them in, and get them condemned and sell them there."

Mr. Berret, mate of the schr. Industry, of Boston, bound to Martinique, taken on the 26th April, and carried into Guadaloupe vessel and cargo condemned—Captain and hands in prison, they allowed 6 ounces of fish, and 3 4 lb. of very bad bread. Left 50 at Bassaterre (Gaud.) came in a cartel to St. Kitts, with 30 masters of vessels; the American Consul gave each of them 8 dollars.

The ship Hero, Robinson, 43 days from Jamaica arrived yesterday in distress.

The above vessel sailed from Philadelphia in December last, for Algiers, with naval stores, &c. for government; and 2 days after sprung a leak and put into Jamaica: after repairing there, sailed with the May fleet, for Algiers, and 29 days after sprung a fresh leak and bore away for New York.

By arrivals yesterday.

The schooner Argus, Fowler, sailed from St Bartholomews June 6—cargo, sugar and coffee—A. King—sailed in company with the schooner Bird, for this port, under convoy of the juno and Olive Branch, two British Letters of Marque of 20 guns for Liverpool.

Capt. Fowler informs, that since the United States sloop of war George Washington and brig Pickering sailed from the West-Indies with the last convoy, numerous captures of American vessels have taken place—He recollects the following: The ship Active of Nantucket, from the South Seas, with a valuable cargo, was immediately condemned and sold to an Italian, for 25,000 dollars, which is about half price——The schr. Alliance, of N. Yarmouth, brig Matilda, of Saybrook, both taken under cover of the guns—Sloop President, of Washington—schooner Farmer, of N. Yarmouth—all carried into St. Bartholomews—and many others carried into St. Martins, the names of which he could not recollect.

Capt. Fowler mentions, that one privateer schooner of 14 guns, had, within a few days, captured thirteen American vessels.

The ship Eagle, Barry, sailed with the convoy from Cork—cargo, dry goods &c. consigned to J. Cramond.

Passengers--- Mr. John Murray, and Son, Miss M'Clenaghan and Miss Vernon.

In a speech delivered by a delegation of the Western Indians, to the President of the United States, in December last, is the following paragraph:

"Your enemies have but a short time past, sent us a strange three coloured Flag, with a War Belt, inviting us to hostile acts against you, but we wiped our kettles with their flag, and returned their hatchet without an edge. We are determined to be still brothers of the same family, relying on an equal distribution of Justice, and that you our Brother, will aid us in obtaining a fulfilment of past promises, and a liberal construction of the treaty of Grenville.,'

Another Fire in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, June 20.

Another tremendous scene of destruction presented itself to the harrassed citizens of this devoted place this morning. About 1 o'clock a frame shop occupied by a Mr. Guy, dier, in Fish street, near the German Lutheran Church, was, from some cause or other, not yet ascertainable, discovered all on fire, and before the least alarm was given, was so completely buried in flames, that a young fellow by the name of Morton, who slept in it, had scarcely time to make his escape in his shirt; and a horse in an adjoining stable which was consumed, was burnt to death. No exertions less than divine could save those houses; and a two story brick house in Fish street, occupied by Mr. John Barry, a three story do. occupied as a store by the same gentleman at the corner of Eish and Gay streets, and a three story do. in Gay street, occupied as a store and dwelling by Mr. Messersmith, were soon reached by the element, but might in some measure have deen preserved, had not the only engine then under way been unfortunately choaked with mud, thrown in with the water taken from a shallow part of the falls. Mr. Messersmith's house having a high south gable wall, the morning at that time calm, and the exertions of the people very great, the further progress of the element was arrested; but had the wind arisen as high as it did two hours afterwards, every house on that side of Gay street, to the falls, must inevitably have been burnt.

The question here naturally suggests itself—Why, after having been so fortunate during a long and inclement winter, is our city almost nightly ravaged with fire now! Negligence is, no doubt, the cause in some instances, and perhaps in this; but villainous incendiaries, it is to be feared, add to the calamity. A remedy against both, it is the province of our police to find out and apply; and we feel confident, that if the objects be attainable, their zeal and wisdom will be adequate to the task.

PHILADELPHIA,

SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 22.

CONFLAGRATION.

The most destructive Fire, that has occurred in this city for several years, broke out last night, in a House near the corner of Callowhill and Second-streets. The ravages of the flames were not subdued until twelve dwelling-houses had been entirely consumed. Mr. Hare's Brewery, situated in the vicinity, was in imminent danger, and caught fire several times. A number of stables and other out-buildings also fell a prey to the flames. Mr. Jacob Kurtz, we learn, is the principal sufferer.

New-York, June 21, 1799.

"The brig Maria, capt. Brown, mentioned to have been taken by the Jay, arrived this morning from Cape François, after a passage of 20 days; and brings intelligence that Toussaint and Rigaud are at war, and have had several engagements. The former is said to have 50,000 men under his command, and the latter nearly the same force. Capt. Brown is of opinion that thousands have been killed in the different engagements. The Spaniards side with Toussaint in support in support of the independence of the island. There was a British frigate from Jamaica, lying three or four leagues to the leeward of Cape François from England with the Governor of Jamaica and the American commissioners on board, whose intent was to endeavor to compromise the dispute between the two Generals.

"Toussaint resides at the Cape, Rigaud, at Aux Cayes, but is generally with his army."

[The Liberty, in 14 days from Cape-Francois, with dispatches to Government as late as the 7th inst. brings no account of these transactions.]

Philadelphia, 22d June, '99.

MR. FENNO,

WITH surprise and regret I observed in your paper of last evening a piece No. 1. addressed to the managers of the Alms House and House of Employ, containing strictures and observations, merely the result, in my opinion, of some malicious scribbler, who is willing to intrude himself into notice by attacking public institutions founded for the most benevolent purposes—the operations of which he is as ignorant of as his conduct on this occasion is void of decency. It has ever been my decided opinion, no notice ought to be taken of the observations of anonymous writers; but let them amuse themselves with their own folly till they are tired, or convinced that they are unnoticed. I should have on this occasion supported my general opinion—but as there may be some good and well meaning people, who, for want of proper information, may be in some degree influenced by such trash, I shall offer a few general observations, not by any means with a view to enlighten or satisfy the impertinence of such writers, but merely to confute the unjust charges against the managers.

He appears to have discovered an error in the amount transferred from one account to that of another, which may be right; but upon what grounds does he lug the mayor and justices into a share of the blame. It is their duty to examine the receipts and expenditures of the institution to see that the taxes laid are applied according to law. What in God's name have they to do with the manufacturing account?—If this writer will read the poor laws he will find that he is mistaken in his opinion on this head: and if he will examine the books at the Alms House "he will find the scrutinizing eye of the Mayor, two Aldermen and three Justices" have not suffered any thing within the line of their duty to escape their notice.

The writer (I wish he had given himself a name) it seems has found out by the account No. 3, that the paupers in the House are 605, of whom 153 are children. Poor infants, the inhuman wretch "throws them all out of the question because they do not work:" and no doubt would throw them all into the street for the same cause: of course the result is (as he states the case) that there remains 226 men and 227 women: and that their earnings average 4s per ann. each, a lumping affair indeed: yet it is doubtful whether his earnings amount to half the sum. I am sure if his only employment was writing pieces to the managers, it would not produce a farthing. Joking aside: let us examine his proposition. 605 paupers, of which there are, he says, 153 children, which being deducted, leaves 452 persons, of which, he says, two hundred and twenty-six are men, and two hundred and twenty-seven are women. Now, Mr. Scribbler, blush—and candidly tell us in your No. 2, if 226 men and 227 women make only 452 persons. It is really shamefull for you to undertake and execute so lamely: you will make indeed a poor hand when you come to the manager's accounts of receipts and expenditures, where you may have occasion to add, subtract, multiply and divide tens of thousands, when your arithmetical knowledge does not admit of correctness in the addition of units. However, admit your 226 and 227—Let us try to find employment for them, and employment for them too that shall not produce one cent per ann. In the first place, remember that there are 153 children—which require at least from sixty to seventy women to nurse and take care of them: say - - - - 60

For washing, - - - - 10
For cleaning the house, - - 10
Old and infirm, stationary, - - 56
Sick of various complaints, who, as soon as they are cured, are discharged, and others received, - - - 50
Cripples and Lunatics, - - 14
Persons employed in spinning flax, &c. 27

Thus, of 227 women, upon an average, there are never more than twenty-seven employed in the manufacturing departments, and but a small profit can be expected when there is no advance of price on the articles consumed in the House. Having thus placed to the view of every disinterested honest enquirer, the situation of the institution with regard to the women's appartment, though, perhaps, not minutely correct, yet so as to enable a candid mind to form a correct idea of the subject. I shall reserve the class of the men for another occasion, and offer some general remarks on this head, the writer "cannot resolve it to his own satisfaction, that 453 grown people, who are all provided at the public expence with board, &c. should not earn 4s. each year, when an individual can earn twice as much in one day." This is enough to raise a laughter in the most serious and sedate. Certainly this wiseacre must have lately paid a visit to the vagrant's apartment in the common prison of the city, and there been made to use his fingers in picking oakum—He never certainly visited the Alms House, or if he possesses one grain of common understanding, he never would have found any difficulty in resolving his own query. As the case now stands, I must resolve it for him. He is willing, it seems (good natured soul) to make very large allowances; yet as good natured as he is, I cannot discover that he has made any—but all his allowances amount to a want of knowledge by his own confession. Every law which has been enacted in relation to the Alms House may be read from first to last, and no power will be found lodged in the hands of the managers to keep for one moment any person who is able to maintain themselves and by the same laws they are restrained to relieving poor and needy, sick and destitute persons only—of course a reasonable and benevolent mind with a small share of confidence would not hesitate to say that out of the whole number above stated, of both men and women, there is never to be found one person able to do a week's work upon an average, in the year. How therefore, a man in his sober senses, could for a moment be at a loss to ascertain the cause of so little work being done by the paupers, is one of those astonishing cases which the modern illuminati alone can determine.

I shall close my observations for the present, leaving what I have hastily written to the candor and benevolence of the humane citizens of Philadelphia, pledging myself to continue such observations and remarks from time to time as my avocations will permit, for the information of my fellow citizens: and I assure you, Mr. Scribbler, I am under many obligations to you for setting this business on foot. I hope you will not give out, but continue your kindness, by promulgating your ignorance. W.

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Courtlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Fare for passengers, Five Dollars.
Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation. They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very expliaitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has been taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviour of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns, spoken of with the highest satisfaction.
